

Arts, Language and Communication Meta-Major

Meta-Majors are an easy way to find the major that’s right for you! The degrees within the Arts, Language and Communication Meta-Major share courses to help you to complete your associate’s degree from York Technical College and seamlessly transfer to Winthrop University to earn your bachelor’s degree.

The Arts, Language and Communication Meta-Major is right for you if creativity and communication are your strengths. You enjoy connecting with people through language —written, verbal or both — and you like bringing people together. You express yourself freely, and you know that art, in every form, is one of the best ways to explore new ideas and points of view.

Within the Arts, Language and Communication Meta-Major you can earn your degrees in:
