Individualized Studies MAJOR MAP

Possible Programs of Study:

	1ST YEAR	2ND YEAR	3RD OR FINAL YEAR	4TH OR FINAL YEAR
COURSES YOU NEED (core courses, requirements, electives) GET RELEVANT	Make sure you take ACAD 101, HMXP 102, Math course, and appropriate required social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences Take the language exam to make sure you place into the correct level of a language course Take at least the first language class	Take CRTW 102 and the introductory course for Study Abroad. Perhaps take IDVS 390 in the fall. Choose your minor; finish your language and General Education requirements. Plan your IDVS program of Study with the IDVS director. Choose three Faculty Mentors.	Update your program of study. Check progress with your major and minor with your advisor(s). Study Abroad or participate in a National Student Exchange. Take IDVS 390 if you haven't already.	Take IDVS 490. Apply for graduation in August. If time permits retake a course better grade.
EXPERIENCE (clubs, jobs, volunteering, research, internships)	Join a club, a sorority or fraternity, CSL, or other social organization. Visit the fall volunteer fair. Take a class that has a service or experiential learning component. Get work experience over the summer.	Visit the Volunteer Fair and choose an organization to serve. Take the opportunity to do undergraduate research if possible. Get work experience in your field of study or intern.	If you have not done an internship, plan to do one this year. Give a presentation at the SOURCE conference. Get work experience in your field of study.	Take on a new leadership role i or organization. Join an academic honor society you have not done so. Seek an position in an academic honor s
GET CONNECTED WITH THE COMMUNITY (conferences, student gov't, associations)	Do some sort of volunteer work in your community, no matter how small.	Visit the ONCA office. Volunteer with a local organization when possible, such as a church, neighborhood organization, or 501C3. Apply for a leadership role like Student Ambassadors, Peer Mentors, Resident Assistant, etc.	Continue volunteer work when possible. Join any of the academic honor societies that you qualify for. Continue in leadership roles or apply for a new leadership role in a campus organization.	Do a presentation at an academ conference if possible.
GET THINKING GLOBALLY (study abroad, travel, 3rd year exchange)	Visit the International Center. Apply for a passport. Check out all the Study Abroad Programs.	Apply to Study Abroad for the first semester of your junior year.	Study Abroad if possible or participate in a National Student Exchange.
GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION (career or grad school prep)	Get help writing a resume from the Career and Civic Engagement Office. Create an account on Eagle Link.	Work with the IDVS director on selecting an internship or a job that helps you achieve your career goals. Buy professional clothing. Update your resume.	<ul> <li>Participate in a mock interview at the Career and Civic Engagement Office.</li> <li>Continue to grow your professional wardrobe.</li> <li>Begin researching graduate programs that you are interested in.</li> <li>Talk to your advisor and professors about graduate school.</li> </ul>	Take a GRE or GMAT Prep cours Visit graduate schools. Solicit letters of recommendation graduate school or a profession from several professors. Apply for graduate schools (ear

CAREERS OF INTEREST

Varies widely.

SKILLS & QUALIFICATIONS I MIGHT NEED INCLUDE:

Solid communication skills

Relevant work experience

ools (early).