

History 463/601-001 Academic Internship
Dr. Edward Lee, Instructor
Fall 2020

Course Requirements: The intern will complete 150 hours this semester at a site agreed upon by the intern and instructor. The instructor identifies a mentor to work with the intern on-site. The intern maintains a journal of his/her activities at the site. This journal will be submitted to the instructor at the completion of the internship, along with a sign-in sheet from the site. The site's mentor will confirm to Dr. Lee the completion of the internship. Throughout the semester, the intern will meet with Dr. Lee at least every other week to discuss the internship. These requirements will be the basis for the student's assessment in History 463/601.

The Instructor: Dr. Lee is a former president of the South Carolina Historical Association. He has written fifteen books, including the award-winning Yorkville To York. His office is Bancroft 364 and telephone number is 803-323-4844. He can be reached by e-mail at leee@winthrop.edu.
