

Movement(s) in a Dynamic World: Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Register Here

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Dr. Lakeyta M. Bonnette-Bailey

Associate Professor of Political Science
Georgia State University

“This is America: Hip-Hop Culture and the Black Lives Matter Movement”

February 24
7 p.m.

FEBRUARY 24-25, 2023

Emerging and shifting political, social, ecological, and ideological landscapes are full of possibility.

Broad and inclusive, this conference will showcase or highlight prismatic representations of movements, drawing on perspectives across academic disciplines and exemplify the vital work movements play in our communities.

PANELS & POSTER PRESENTATIONS ON TRANSFORMATIVE MOVEMENTS OF ALL KINDS

SPECIAL EVENTS:

ROCK HILL CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT
PLENARY SESSION

WALKING HISTORY & BREW TRAIL

MUSICAL GUESTS

*Space Daddy
and the Galactic GoGo's*

Visit our website for schedule & special event details:

www.winthrop.edu/cas/interdisciplinary/movement-conference.aspx

External Sponsors:

- Carrie Chapman Catt Center for Women and Politics at Iowa State
- Southeast Regional Seminar in African Studies
- Southeastern Medieval Studies Association
- University of North Carolina Charlotte Department of Interdisciplinary Studies

Email general questions to:

movementconference@winthrop.edu

Partnering with:

