

Estimated MS/DI Program Costs 2023-2024

Updated information on tuition and associated costs is available at:
<https://www.winthrop.edu/cashiers/fees-for-fall-and-spring.aspx> All fees are subject to change by semester. This table will be updated annually.

1	Application Fee. A non-refundable application fee must accompany each new application to the University Graduate School.	50.00
2a	Online MS program tuition per semester (fall & spring semesters) ($699.00 per credit hour)	7,497
2b	Online MS program tuition summer semester	5,831
2c	In-state certificate tuition per semester. Does not include $75.00 library fee.	3,918.00
2d	Out-of-state certificate tuition per semester. Does not include $75.00 library fee.	5,916.00
2e	Environmental safety fee	35.00
3	Laboratory fees per semester ($350.00 per course)	700.00
4	NFPE Modules Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics	99.00
5	Required Textbooks	400.00
7	Parking pass for Winthrop campus (obtained through www.winthrop.edu)	100.00
8	Mandatory insurance, per year A. Professional liability > $1,000,000 each incident (required) B. Personal health and accident* C. Personal vehicle insurance	24.00 Variable Variable
9	Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Student Membership	58.00
10	Transportation, meals, and housing are the responsibility of the interns	Variable
11	Professional attire and closed-toe shoes (lab coat/uniform if required by site)	Variable
12	Cost of drug screening(s), additional immunizations and/or criminal background checks, if requested by a rotation site, are the responsibility of interns	Variable
13	Submission of official transcripts showing date of completion of BS and, as applicable, MS degrees	Variable
14	Cost of processing required end of program paperwork for Certificate – Dietetic Internship	25.00

Financial Assistance: Interns who are enrolled as full-time graduate degree-seeking students may be eligible for financial assistance.

Students wishing to apply should go to the Office of Financial Aid, 119 Tillman, 803-323-2189 or FinAid@winthrop.edu

*Interns may choose to pay a $220.00 fee per semester to use the Health and Counseling Services through the Center for Student Wellness on campus.