*Competencies in this course may be covered in content area courses. Students should confer with their advisor before enrolling for this course.

Competencies in this course may be covered in art, music or physical education courses. Students should confer with their advisor before enrolling for this course.

Because content studies are a major component of this degree, students are expected to complete all pedagogical courses, all required prerequisites and no fewer than 9 semester hours of content study prior to supervised teaching (EDUC690 School Internship). A course in methodology specific to the content area must be included. Content area courses must be completed in the area in which the student is seeking licensure. In some cases, this requirement may result in additional undergraduate course work.
