

Council of Student Leaders Accomplishments for the 2014-2015 Year

CSL strives to provide students with the best possible Winthrop experience and has continued to accomplish that goal during this academic year by:

- Traveling to Columbia to lobby for funding and support for Winthrop at the South Carolina State House.
- Planning and hosting the Garnet and Gold Unity Gala, a campus wide semi-formal and global cultural event designed to bring the community together.
- Appointing student representatives to all the University wide governance committees.
- Allocating all $30,000 that was available for clubs and organizations
- Chartered and Welcomed 16 new clubs and organizations
- Hosting "Justice Or Lack There Of"; a cultural event to bring awareness to social inequalities, the legal system and the rights of students through a panel of legal experts and law enforcement agents.
- Providing a voter drive to register Winthrop students for regional elections.
- Co-Hosting a business mixer in conjunction with the organization True Gold.
- Providing a student voice to the Winthrop University Board of Trustees.
- Hosting an election rally and election forum to aid in the selection of a new Student Body President and Vice President.
- Planning a Winthrop Family Cookout for the student body and their relatives.

- Fostering leadership through various retreats and workshops.
- Providing relevant information to the Winthrop community on a weekly basis through articles in The Johnsonian.
- Co-sponsoring MLK Day of Service and the LIFT Conference.
- Establishing a clear delivery system of ideas from the student body to Winthrop faculty and staff such as concerns related to safety, food and academics.
- Investigating and responding to student concerns raised at meetings and through the comment box.
- CSL leadership and members were actively engaged with the Presidential Search for Winthrop's 11th President. The entire Council hosted meet and greet sessions with each of three candidates and the CSL President and Vice-President actively represented the student perspective on the search committee
