ISSUE #12

We are @ArtsWinthrop.

October 14 - 17

Enjoy the break! When you come back, we have a lot of fun events for you!

FOR STUDENTS

ATTENTION ARTSWINTHROP STUDENTS!! We need your help!!

Are you interested in doing an @ArtsWinthrop student takeover?

We are searching for a representative from each Major in the CVPA to takeover our Instagram and TikTok for a day and show everyone what life is like here at ArtsWinthrop!

E-mail Lauren Grad at gradl@winthrop.edu if you're interested!

ATTN: Fine Art Students

Date: Friday, October 28

Time: 12:15 - 2:15 p.m.

Place: Rutledge 130 (Painting studio)

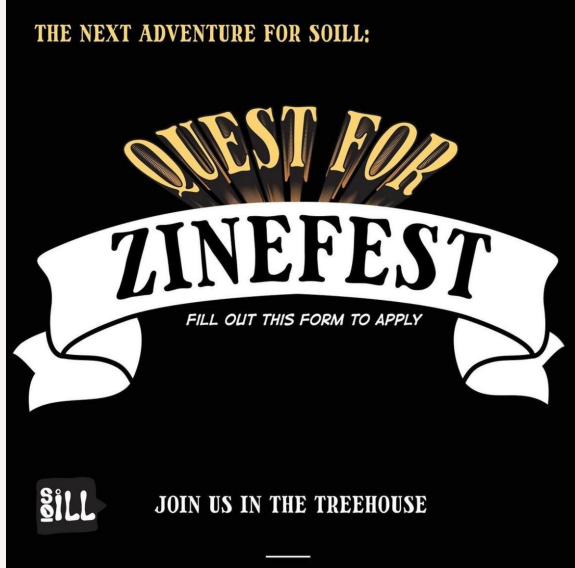

THE SOCIETY OF ILLUSTRATORS

@soill_winthrop

"Kick off Ghoultober with us in the Treehouse in a Halloween-themed design jam lead by the lovely Reagan Woodward!"

@soill_winthrop

"Bring us your zines, stickers, prints and more because we made it into Zinefest everybody!

Meet us there from 11-5 at Goodyear Arts, Camp Northend, Charlotte!

The link to the interest form will be in our (insta) bio and an email was sent out to all illustration members that are on our list. (If you're an illustrator at Winthrop and did not see this email, please DM your Winthrop email so that you're added to future messages)"

The Union of Student Artists had their annual portrait wars event last Friday in the painting studio! Here's some evidence of the fun

If you are a fine arts student and aren't a part of @winthropusa you should join asap!

Foundations

October 4 – 24

Lewandowski Student Gallery

Courses in 2D design, 3D design, drawing, digital studio, and media studies comprise the bedrock of our fine art students' studio training. It is the Foundations Program that prepares students for excellence in craft, observation, critical thinking, innovation, and sensitivity to form, along with expectations for a rigorous work ethic. This exhibit represents outstanding works produced in the foundation-level courses within the Department of Fine Arts and serves to celebrate the efforts of both the students and the instructors.

Mutually Assured Seduction (MAS)

Tamara LaValla

September 12 – December 9

Rutledge and Elizabeth Dunlap Patrick Galleries

Mutually Assured Seduction (MAS) is a one-woman group show, led by artist Tamara LaValla, exploring a real and persistent preoccupation with desire, order, progress and work. Resisting the evanescent embrace of our ethereal, virtual world through the rigors of making, LaValla has engaged a diverse array of interdisciplinary creatives. The resulting collaborative artifacts and ephemera — edible, malleable, consumable, sonic — endeavor to be, at once, both timely and timeless.

Department of Fine Arts presents

CVPA SPOTLIGHTS!

Tony Award winner Corey Mitchell came to see the Winthrop Department of Theatre and Dance's production of Stick Fly, by Lydia Diamond on Saturday, and stayed after for a talk-back and discussion with the cast and crew.

Corey's accolades range from winning the first-ever Tony Award for Excellence in Theatre Education to receiving the inaugural Stephen Schwartz Musical Theatre Teacher of the Year Award and ASC Cato Lifetime Achievement in Teaching Award. He is the current director of the new nonprofit, The Theatre Gap Initiative, a college-prep program to help high school grads of color prepare for and get accepted to university theatre programs.

Students enrolled in Professor Alice Burmeister's ARTH 175/175H recently had the opportunity to examine these small Mesopotamian clay tablets with cuneiform script at Winthrop's Louis Pettus Archives and Special Collections.

"It was really exciting to handle and study these ancient tablets, some of which are over 4,000 years old!"

Elizabeth Dulemba

Professor of Design, Elizabeth Dulemba, was recently interviewed by Storyland in Shanghai, China for her novel, A Bird on Water Street which has been translated into Chinese and Thai. She was interviewed by Ella Chen, the Podcast host, who said, "Besides, the interview has also been translated and published on our platform.
