CURRENT & UPCOMING EVENTS

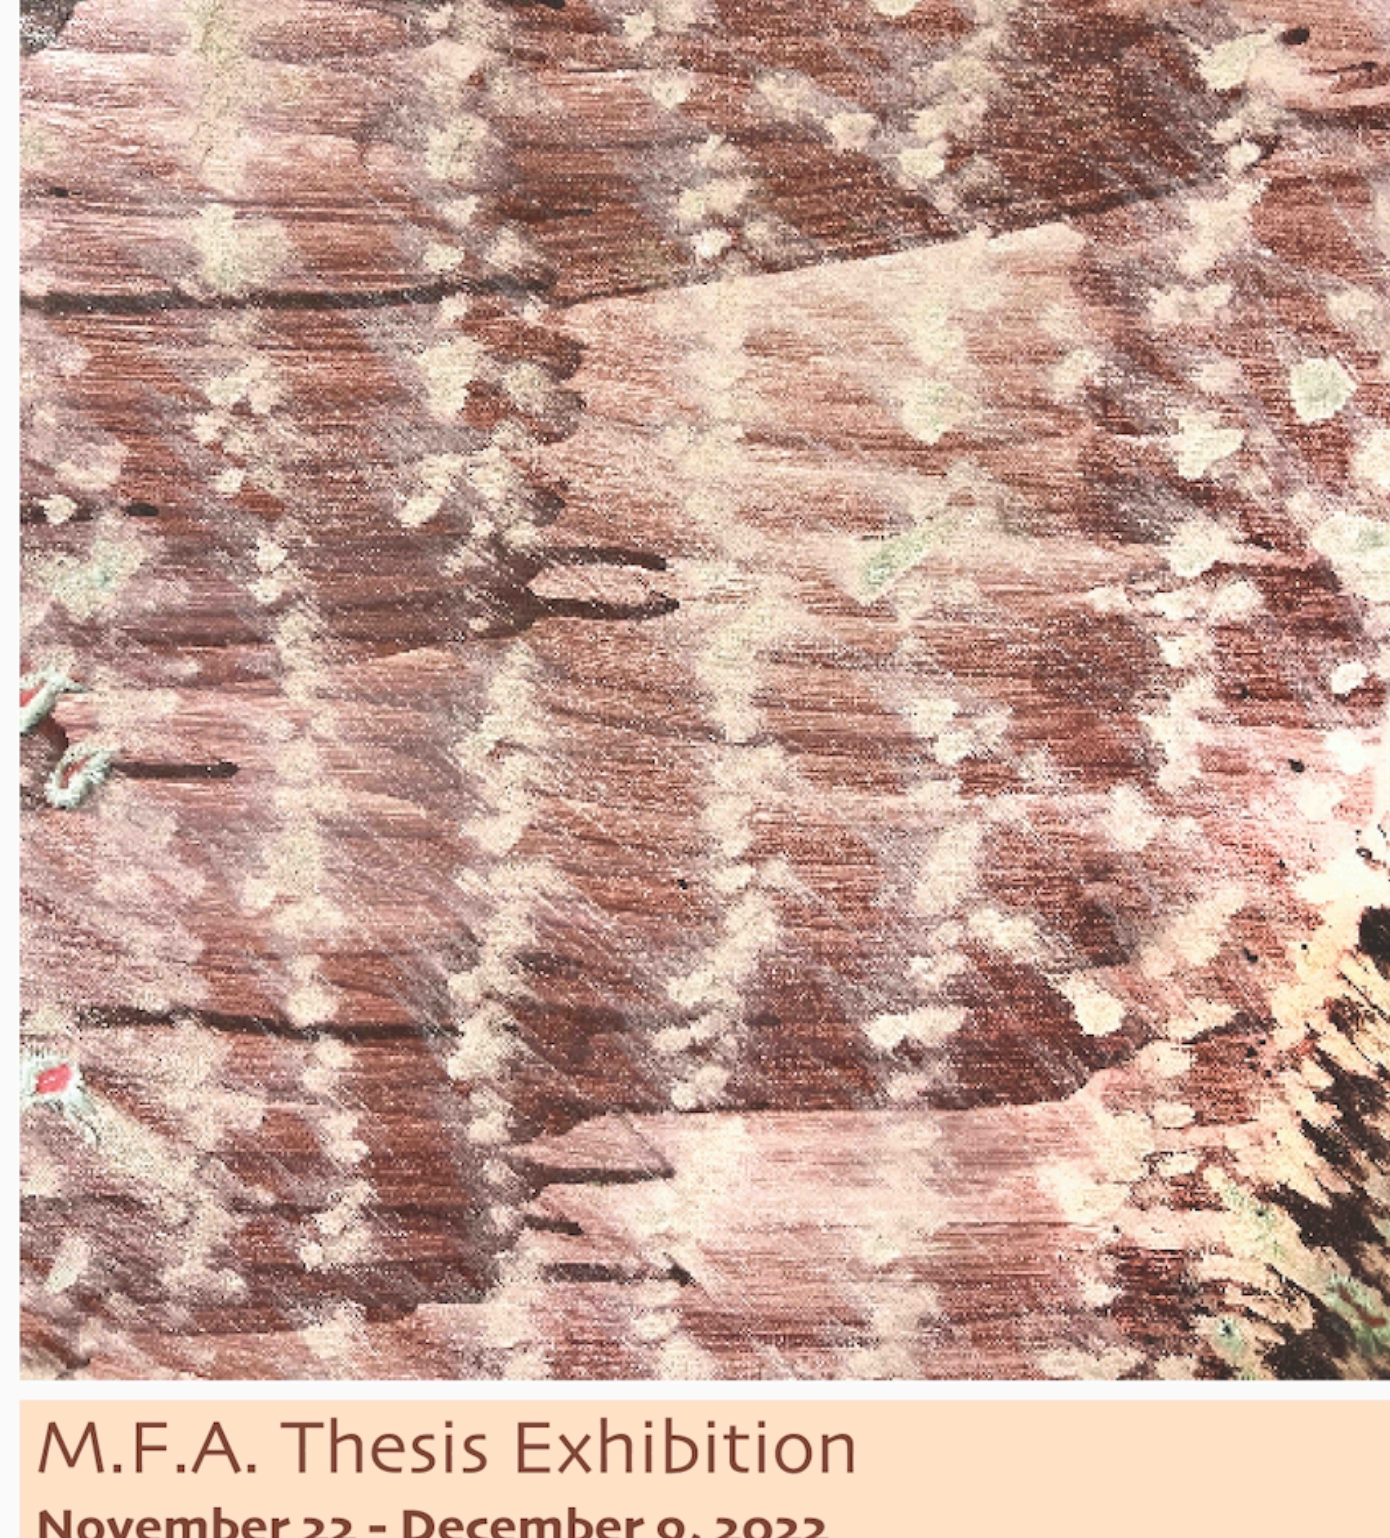

Mutually Assured Seduction (MAS)

Tamara LaValla
September 12 – December 9
Rutledge and Elizabeth Dunlap Patrick Galleries

Mutually Assured Seduction (MAS) is a one-woman group show, led by artist Tamara LaValla, exploring a real and persistent preoccupation with desire, order, progress and work. Resisting the evanescent embrace of our ethereal, virtual world through the rigors of making, LaValla has engaged a diverse array of interdisciplinary creatives. The resulting collaborative artifacts and ephemera — edible, malleable, consumable, sonic — endeavor to be, at once, both timely and timeless..

Elevating The Queer Body

M.F.A. Thesis Exhibition
November 22 - December 9, 2022
Lewandowski Student Gallery

Thesis Talk and Opening Reception:
November 29, 2022 5:00 p.m. with reception to follow
Artist talk 18+ due to explicit material being discussed.

The 2022-2023 Master of Fine Arts (M.F.A.) Thesis Exhibition I features new work by Grant Mahan completing his graduate program in the Department of Fine Arts. Mahan's Elevating The Queer Body exhibition questions the perspectives of the queer body through the medium of painting.
