PIPPIN

Coordinated by Winthrop University Department of Theatre & Dance
Music and Lyrics by Stephen Schwartz
Book by Roger O. Hirson
Directed by Matt Ferrell

"With an infectiously unforgettable score from Grammy and Oscar winning musical theatre giant, Stephen Schwartz, Pippin is the story of one young man's journey to be extraordinary. Winner of four 2013 Tony Awards including Best Musical Revival. Heir to the Frankish throne, the young prince Pippin is in search of the secret to true happiness and fulfillment. He seeks it in the glories of the battlefield, the temptations of the flesh and the intrigues of political power (after disposing of his father, King Charlemagne the Great). In the end, though, Pippin finds that happiness lies not in extraordinary endeavors, but rather in the unextraordinary moments that happen every day."

PROFESSOR TSELENTIS

"Bruce Wayne became the Batman to fight crime and seek justice, but is his vengeful approach appropriate? Is he suited to, and able to, do the work by himself? And does Gotham's (corrupt and entitled) inner circle get in his way or help the mission? In addition to Batman, learn about other crime fighters like Tintin from the Belgian weekly "Le Petit Vingtième" to pulp fiction and comics like The Shadow or Little Orphan Annie, as well as movies like the "Knives Out" series, plus cartoons like "Scooby-Doo, Where Are You?" FREE to attend, FUN and friendly for all ages, PG & PG-13 content."

"What does American Idol have to do with the book of Revelation? What do professional basketball players and new media have to do with the apocalypse? In this wide-ranging discussion of art since the year 2000, we will attempt to answer these questions through a consideration of several works by Paul Pfeiffer and Christian Jankowski. Those by Pfeiffer are typically erudite and sober, despite recurring references to the raced iconography of popular sports, while those by Jankowski are seemingly light-hearted and silly, despite religious and often cataclysmic subject matter. Two sides, perhaps, of the same coin, works by these artists will guide us as we grapple with the following essential questions: how does apocalyptic rhetoric function in art at the beginning of the second millennium? And, what connections might we make between it, technology, and pop culture?"

The poster features a large, stylized eye graphic in shades of blue, purple, and pink. The text is arranged around the eye. At the top left, it says 'ARTIST TALKS' in a large, serif font. Below that, in a smaller sans-serif font, it reads 'Graduating BFA Candidates, Spring 2023', 'April 4th, 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM', and 'Dina's Place | Winthrop University'. On the right side, a list of names is provided. At the bottom left, the word 'SILENCE' is written in a spaced-out, serif font. At the bottom right, there is a circular logo with 'CE!' inside and 'CULTURAL EVENT' below it.

Winthrop's ArtsBridge program is 100% grant funded, residential immersive arts learning experience held June 10- June 17, 2023, for teachers and sponsored students from their campus.

*Sponsored students must be rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors.

ArtsBridge students will earn university credit for a unique course that includes intensive, workshop-style instruction in dance, drama, music, design and visual art with Winthrop faculty, who are all professional practicing artists and designers, giving students a true college classroom and studio experience. For ArtsBridge teachers, it is a rare opportunity to receive continuing education credits to explore the value of learning in the arts, experience and develop a studio-mindset to accelerate project-based learning potential in their own classroom; not to mention unlocking their own personal creative confidence.
