Professor Jason Tselentis examines Batman's broader culture impact, not only as a character in comic books and cartoons, but also as a product that's earned DC and Warner Brothers lots and lots of money over the years. The business and branding of Batman means big bucks, selling lots of comics and toys, it'll keep the Bat-Brand going forever and ever. Who stands to gain? Who stands to lose? And how did Alan Moore's "Batman Incorporated" (2010) predict a Bat-Future?

Free admission, friendly for all ages, PG & PG-13 content.

Winthrop's ArtsBridge program is 100% grant funded, residential immersive arts learning experience held June 10- June 17, 2023, for teachers and sponsored students from their campus.

*Sponsored students must be rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors.

ArtsBridge students will earn university credit for a unique course that includes intensive, workshop-style instruction in dance, drama, music, design and visual art with Winthrop faculty, who are all professional practicing artists and designers, giving students a true college classroom and studio experience. For ArtsBridge teachers, it is a rare opportunity to receive continuing education credits to explore the value of learning in the arts, experience and develop a studio-mindset to accelerate project-based learning potential in their own classroom; not to mention unlocking their own personal creative confidence.

CVPA Spotlights!

The Department of Theatre & Dance just celebrated their final performance of their production "Pippin" with a nearly sold out room every night! Theatre production ran from March 31 - April 2, "Pippin" is the story of one young man's journey to be extraordinary. In the end, though, Pippin finds that happiness lies not in extraordinary endeavors, but rather in the unextraordinary moments that happen every day.

Department of Music adjunct professor,

Ashley West-Davis was featured in the most recent Opera Carolina magazine, alongside one of our alumni John Fortson!
