The household information provided on your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) conflicts with the household information provided on the verification documents you submitted.

List the people in your parents' household, including:

- yourself and your parents (including stepparent), even if you don't live with your parents but they are listed on your FAFSA, and
- your parents' other children, even if they don't live with your parent(s), if (a) your parents will provide more than half of their support* from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024, or (b) the children would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal Student Aid, and
- other people if they now live with your parents and your parents provide more than half of their support* and will continue to provide more than half of their support* from July 1, 2023 through June 30, 2024.

*Support includes money, gifts, loans, housing, food, clothes, car, medical and dental care, payment of college costs, etc.

For those attending college at least half-time during the 2023-2024 school year (excluding parents), provide the name of the college that person plans to attend. If a household member is unsure about attending college, do not list a college.

Name	Age	Relationship to Student	College
