

Official Data Requests

Which office should I contact?

Winthrop University has two offices that provide reports on essential metrics and academic data (student enrollment, retention, faculty teaching, etc.). The guide below will help you choose the best office for your needs.

Office of Business Intelligence and Data Management (BIDM) BIDM DATA REQUEST FORM LINK	VS.	Institutional Effectiveness (IE) includes Institutional Research (IR) IR DATA REQUEST FORM LINK
Helps support decision making across the university by providing timely and accurate reports and data from the student information system	Responsibilities	Provides official, public data reported to the SC Commission on Higher Education (CHE), the US Department of Education through IPEDS, and other official entities
Contact for up-to-the-minute data or information to assist in making decisions based on current information	Data Timeliness	Source of official (historical) data for a given term, which can be used for comparison to different terms or to other institutions
Provides information on current students, daily reporting, or other questions based on current data	Reporting Types	Responsible for administering and analyzing results from institution-wide surveys (including NSSE, Graduating Senior Survey, and Alumni Survey)
Interfolio (Faculty180, Faculty Search, and the Review, Promotion and Tenure modules), Qualtrics, and technical assistance for Navigate	System(s) Oversight	OARS system for Assessment Plans and Reporting; PICS system for faculty credentialing; and the management of institutional and programmatic accreditation