

Fee Schedule
H-1B, TN Visas, & Permanent Residency (PR)

Process	Form	Cost	Who Pays?
H-1B for Specialty Occupation
Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker	I-129	$460	Employer ^o
	Anti-Fraud Fee (one-time fee paid with initial H-1B application – not paid for extensions)	$500	Employer ^o
	I-907 Premium Processing (optional, guarantees adjudication or request for additional evidence in 15 calendar days)	$2,805	Employer ^o or Employee ^{oo}
Attorney Fees [^] (if case must be outsourced to attorney)		$3,000 Initial $2,800 Extension	Employer ^o

^o For the purposes of this chart, “Employer” signifies the hiring department at Winthrop University.

^{oo}For the purposes of this chart, “Employee” signifies the individual being sponsored by Winthrop University.

[^]Every effort will be made to process this type of application in the International Center. However, certain cases may be referred to an immigration attorney approved by the South Carolina Attorney General’s Office to represent Winthrop University in immigration cases. In those instances, any attorney’s fees will be the responsibility of the hiring department.

Process	Who Pays?
TN NAFTA Professional
Attorney fees (if applicable). [^]	Employee ^{oo}

^{oo}For the purposes of this chart, “Employee” signifies the individual being sponsored by Winthrop University.

Process	Attorney Fees	USCIS Filing Fees & Additional Costs	Who Pays?
Employment-Based Permanent Residency (PR)
PERM Labor Certification & Attorney Fees*	$3,500	Advertising Costs	Employer ^o only
I-140 Preparation and Filing based on the Labor Certification/PERM	$1,800	$700	Employee ^{oo}
I-907 Premium Processing (optional, guarantees adjudication or request for additional evidence in 15 calendar days)	N/A	$2,805	Employee ^{oo}
I-485 Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjustment of Status (Green Card Application)*	$2,200 - $2,500	$1,225 per applicant ($750 per child under age 14)	Employee ^{oo}

*Labor Certification/PERM and advertising costs are entirely the responsibility of Winthrop as the employer and must be paid by the sponsoring department/college.

The I-140 is part of a Winthrop filed petition, meaning that Winthrop University owns the petition. The I-140 direct filing fee and attorney fees are paid by the faculty member.

The I-907 form, is optional unless it is absolutely necessary due to timing issues related to continued employment. The I-907 filing fee and attorney fees are paid by the faculty member.

*I-485 attorney and filing fees for the faculty member and dependents are the responsibility of the faculty member.

^o For the purposes of this chart, “Employer” signifies the hiring department at Winthrop University.

^{oo}For the purposes of this chart, “Employee” signifies the individual being sponsored by Winthrop University

All fees are subject to change without notice based on USCIS, USDOL policy, as well as attorney and Winthrop University estimated costs.