Director's Discourse

A lot has happened since our last newsletter, including the graduation of five more Winthrop McNair Scholars, the selection of 10 new program participants, and one more baby in our family. CONGRATULATIONS! On page 5, you can see some of the photos that capture a fraction of my favorite moments with alumni and Scholars over the past four months.

One of my favorite photos is of a new tradition we started last month because of Savannah Moritzky - Brownie Points. Whenever one of our Scholars is identified as being a Winthrop McNair Scholar in a newspaper article or other publicity about her or his outstanding work, I will make them a batch of my brownies. Just share a copy of the article or a link to the interview, and I will get to baking! 😊 Thanks Savannah!

Dates to Remember from the Writing Coach:

This year will be our 3rd annual publication of the Winthrop McNair Research Bulletin! By now, Scholars who are submitting to this Bulletin should have shared at least one complete draft of their manuscript with their Mentors for feedback. Final drafts were due to the McNair Office by Monday, February 13th.

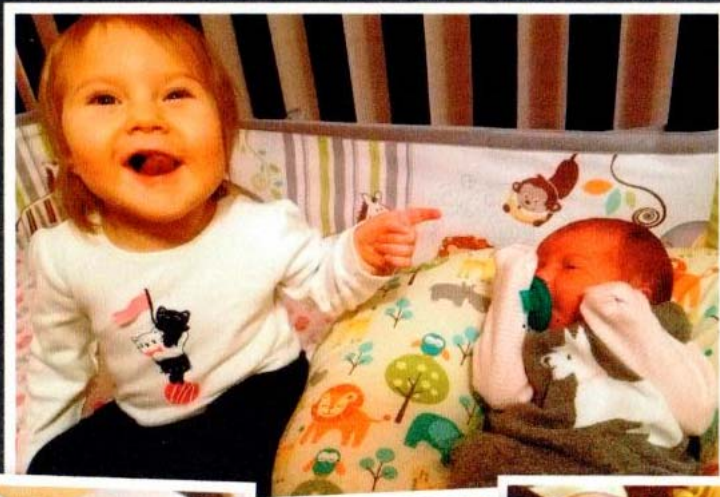

For Scholars who are submitting to an external publication source this semester, please make sure to email me with a timeline for submission and attach an updated draft of the research manuscript for McNair records.

Finally, ALL Scholars should be submitting to Winthrop's Showcase of Undergraduate Research and Creative Endeavors (SOURCE)! The deadline for submissions is March 1st. For more information, please refer to: <http://www.winthrop.edu/undergradresearch/SOURCE/>

If you have questions or need any writing assistance, please email me!

Best,

Stephanie Bartlett, McNair Writing Coach

Blue Ribbon Drop In

Saturday (1/28) was the 31st anniversary of the Challenger explosion when we lost our program's namesake, Dr. Ronald E. McNair. Since the office was not open on Saturday, we had a drop in on Tuesday (1/31) to celebrate Dr. McNair's legacy. We had blue ribbons available for students who wanted to wear one in memory of the seven astronauts lost that day. (They are listed below.)
