

Mother of Athlete Thankful Wimbledon Athletics' Cardiac Testing Helped Save Another Life

PRA Web, April 11

*Mentions that the life of a Wimbledon student-athlete Kenneth Johns was saved after he was administered cardiovascular testing at Winthrop.

Teacher Exchange Participant Elicits Community Support, Donations

Cameroon Concord, April 11

*Mentions that Cameroonian teacher Kwake Gerald Azamah participated in the TEA Fellows (Teaching Excellence and Achievement) program at Winthrop this year.

Evans Band Director Will Retire in June After 29 Years of Teaching

The Columbia County News-Times, April 10

*Reid Hall graduated in 1987.

Winthrop's Monica Aguado Gets Through an Unlikely Senior Day

The Herald, April 9

Academic Minute: Digital Divide

Inside Higher Ed, April 8

*Segment from Marshall Jones, professor and senior director of learning technologies and graduate studies.

Winthrop Lacrosse's Defensive Wall Backed Up by Girani

The Herald, April 7

Jimmy Gavin Trains for NBA Workouts After Inspiring Hoops Ascent

The Chicago Tribune, April 7

*Jimmy Gavin was a standout for Winthrop's men's basketball team this season.

Day Trips: Rock Hill Will Be Hopping for 10 Days

The Charlotte Observer, April 7

*Mentions events on campus, including the Wind Symphony performance, the Teddy Bear Tea Party and the one-act play festival.

Duane Graham Named Chester High Principal

The Herald, April 7

*Graham is a 2000 and 2006 graduate.

@aascu newsletter

April 6 edition

*Winthrop has two mentions: the Department of Social Work's involvement in the community needs assessment for the United Way of York County; and President Dan Mahony and Laura Mahony's establishment of the Daniel E. Nulman Memorial Endowed Scholarship.

Our Mascot's Better Than Yours

The Clinton Chronicle, April 5

*Big Stuff took first place in this competition.

Continuing An Azalea Tradition: The Avett Brothers Return to the Wilmington Stage on Thursday
Encore, April 5

Bob Crawford is a 2003 graduate.