

‘I Thought I Was Going to Die!’ YouTuber Eats World’s Hottest Noodles

Sputnik News, Sept. 5

*Tests for the world’s hottest pepper, the Carolina Reaper, were conducted at Winthrop University.

*Stories on the pepper have appeared recently in Columbia Metro and other outlets.

A Lack of Legislative Competition

The Post and Courier, Sept. 4

*Mentions the Winthrop Poll.

1990 Rock Hill Murder on National TV Show

The Herald, Sept. 1

*Focuses on the late Melinda Snyder ’89.

National Basketball Retired Players Association Members Receive Scholarships to Kaplan University to Bolster Success After Basketball Careers

Yahoo Finance, Aug. 31

*Mentions Lynette Woodard, assistant women’s basketball coach, is one of the recipients.

Officers Give Motorists 30 Citations During State Line Traffic Checkpoint

The Herald, Aug. 31

*Mentions that Winthrop’s Campus Police Department assisted.

Three New Affordable Housing Units ‘Filling the Need’ in Arcade Mill Village

The Herald, Aug. 31

*Mentions that Walter Hardin, associate vice president for facilities management, is on the city’s Housing Development Corporation Board.

Charlotte-Area Resources for Small-Business Owners and Entrepreneurs

The Charlotte Observer, Aug. 31

*Mentions Knowledge Park and Winthrop’s proximity to it.

Twice Is Nice—Adams Returns to Adams Field as Lady Cougars Head Coach

Walterboro Live, Aug. 31

*Mallory Crawford attended and played for Winthrop.

Straight Talk: Danny Nicholson

WRHI, Aug. 30

Prep Baseball: Smith Impressed With Winthrop

The Enquirer Journal, Aug. 30

*Drake Smith will play for Winthrop.

Business Briefs

Greenville Online, Aug. 30

*Chris Brady is a 2007 graduate.

McCray Named Editor of News & Post, Weekly Observer

SC Now, Aug. 30

Shamira McCray is a 2014 graduate.

University Center in Rock Hill Could Get First Tenant Following Deal Across Town

Charlotte Business Journal, Aug. 29

ICYMI: 2016's Best & Worst States for Women's Equality

Wallet Hub, Aug. 23

Quotes College of Arts and Sciences Dean Karen Kedrowski.