

University

Winthrop University to Demolish Iconic Dorms Amid Campuswide Construction

Post and Courier, July 26 (behind a paywall)

*Quotes James Grigg, associate vice president for facilities, on the plan to take down Wofford and Richardson residence halls.

New “Fast Track” Program Allows Students to Earn Degrees in Record Time

CN2, July 26

*Quotes President Edward Serna on the Fast Track program.

Faculty

Review of “British Women Satirists” Book

Morgenbladet, July (no link available but article can be emailed to those interested. The article is written in Norwegian, not English)

*Review of English Professor Amanda Hiner’s book by the literature and culture editor for Norway’s largest newspaper.

In Battle for South Carolina 2024 Cash, It’s Scott, Haley – And Then Everyone Else

Post and Courier, July 24

*Quotes Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon on the two in-state presidential candidates.

SC Voters Say They’re Intrigued – But Not All Decided – on Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis

Charlotte Observer, Rock Hill Herald, July 18

*Quotes Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon.

Why was Ron DeSantis in Tega Cay? What the SC Town Offers to GOP Presidential Hopeful

Charlotte Observer, Rock Hill Herald, July 17

*Quotes Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon on DeSantis’ appeal.

Winthrop Poll

Despite Trump’s SC Popularity, Christie Looks to Break Through in Early Primary

The State, July 24

SC’s Lindsey Graham Likely to Face Republican Challenger Amid Conservative Grumblings, Report Says

The State, July 20

*Mentions that Fifth District Congressman Ralph Norman is thinking about challenging Sen. Lindsey Graham for his seat in 2026.

Athletics

Winthrop Basketball Warming Up for Upcoming Season

CN2, July 19

*Interview with Head Coach Mark Prosser about the summer workouts and upcoming season.

Alumni

Palmetto Voices Returns to Sumter Opera House for Annual Concert on July 29

Sumter Item, July 22

*Mentions tribute to Robert Edgerton, who taught at Winthrop, and several Winthrop alumni, such as Sonja Sepulveda '74, '75, and Herbert Johnson '01, '13.

New Principal Named at Colleton County High School

WCIV, July 19 and Walterboro Live

*Announces that Uirica Bodison '96 will take on a new role.

Holden LeCroy, Meet the Team

KEZI, July 19

*Mentions that LeCroy attended Winthrop and recently joined KEZI as a meteorologist.