

University

Unlock Your Imagination with Arts Council's Underexposed Film Festival

CN2, March 20

*Mentions the festival is a collaboration with the College of Visual and Performing Arts and will be held in Dina's Place.

Winthrop PD and Rock Hill PD Team Up for Active Shooter Training

WRHI, March 13

*Area fire and police departments conducted active shooter training at the Wofford and Richardson residence halls.

Faculty

Cyberattack on US Pipeline is Linked to Criminal Gang

IFunny, March 16

*Quotes Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon on whether President Biden and his administration is responsible for the gas shortage.

Athletics

Winthrop University Basketball Player Toneari Lane Says He's Transferring to Georgia State

Rock Hill Herald, March 14

Grayson Grad Toneari Lane, After Three Seasons at Winthrop, Commits to Georgia State

Gwinnett Daily Post, March 14

CN2 Sports: Coverage from the Weekend

CN2, March 13

Straight Talk: Chuck Rey, Winthrop AD and Andy Clinton, CEO of Visit York County

WRHI, March 10

Alumni

Cooks Ready to Help Wizards After Unusual Path

NBC Sports, March 19

Xavier Cooks is Officially a Washington Wizard

Sports Illustrated, March 17

From Sydney to Washington: Can Xavier Cooks Make Magic with the Wizards?

The Pick and Roll, March 14

*Above three stories highlight the basketball journey of former Winthrop player Xavier Cooks '18 to the NBA at age 27. He is the first Eagle to play in the NBA.

Colleen Yates, One of Sumter City Council's First Female Leaders, Dies at 93

The Sumter Item, March 14

*Recognition of Colleen Yates '50.