

University

Trump Campaign Still Owes Coastal; Winthrop Tab Paid in Full, Public Records Show
SC Daily Gazette, May 17

*The Trump campaign paid all of its $57,300 bill for its Feb. 23 rally at the Winthrop Coliseum.

Faculty

Best Car Insurance in South Carolina

Wallethub, May 17

*Assistant Professor of Accounting Charles Randle wrote an article on why rates are different and how to find a good rate.

8 Ways to Invest in Next-Gen Advisors – and Your Firm’s Future

Financial Planning, May 17

*Adjunct Financial Planning Advisor Kris Carroll works with planners at his company to hone soft skills.

Students Pitted Against ChatGPT to Improve Writing

Inside Higher Ed, May 15

*Education Professor Marshall Jones is quoted as saying that the University of Nevada’s approach to having students compete against ChatGPT in writing assignments is a constructive way to deal with a new issue.

Winthrop Poll

It’s Time to End Gerrymandering in South Carolina

ACLU, May 17

*ACLU cites the Winthrop Poll in talking about what South Carolina residents support concerning gun and abortion policies.

Battleground States

New York Times, May 13

*Winthrop’s Center for Public Opinion & Policy Research helped call voters about the latest opinions on the presidential election.

Students

Talford Returning to Winthrop for Final Season

Chester News and Reporter, May 14

*Basketball player Kelton Talford is coming back for a fifth season.

Black Doctoral Network/Congratulations to Our Winners of Our Undergraduate Research

Instagram, May 10

*Logan Pender '24 took first place for his work on “Breaking Barriers, Building Bridges.”

Athletics

Betts Departs Winthrop Basketball Staff

HoopDirt, May 19

Ben Betts with men's basketball leaves to join Combine Academy.

Monty Sanders Returns to Winthrop as Associate Head Coach

BVM Sports, May 18

Monty Sanders returns to Winthrop after two years with Campbell.

Alumni

Bluffton's McCracken Middle Will Have a New Principal Next School Year

The Island Packet, May 17

Ryan Milling '05, '13, won't be serving as the McCracken Middle School principal next year.

The Void Offers Its First Piccolo Production, "Goodnight Embryos"

Charleston City Paper, May 16

Teddi Lynette Thomas '18 stars in a two-woman show in Charleston.

Elizabethtown Native Dr. Vann Newkirk a Force at Wilberforce

The Bladen Journal, May 14

Van Newkirk '91 challenges students to make more of themselves.

Nick Stonestreet Joins DLP Capital as New President of Financial Services

Businesswire, May 9

Nick Stonestreet '84 recently joined the private real estate and financial investment company.

Future Students

Dreher High to Hold Visual and Performing Arts Signing Day

WACH, May 15

Students who plan to attend various colleges to study the arts hold a signing day at the Columbia school.

Other News

Political Standoff Over Title IX Puts Red State Colleges in No-Win Situation

Inside Higher Ed, May 14

South Carolina institutions are told not to go by the administration's Title IX guidelines.

Who is CCU's Donor Whose \$95M Gift Never Came? He's Reappeared in FL Pledging More Money

Rock Hill Herald, Sun News, May 8

ICYMI: Interview with David Lowry, professor emeritus of music

YouTube, Feb. 24

Interview was conducted by Lenora M. Jeffcoat '01