

FRANCES MAY BARNES RECITAL HALL

2,232 Total SF | Completion: 1939

Located adjacent to Byrnes Auditorium, the Conservatory of Music provides music faculty and students with an outstanding practice, instructional, and recital space. Faculty and student talent of the Department of Music, within the College of Visual and Performing Arts, is showcased here each semester at free, open-to-the-public performances. The Frances May Barnes Recital Hall, named for a 1915 alumna, is an excellent facility for smaller vocal and instrumental ensemble performances.

INTERESTING FEATURES

- 200-seat auditorium ideal for productions, performances, ceremonies, and presentations.
- It includes a 10-stop, two-manual tracker pipe organ by Kney.
- An adjacent lobby area can be set up, with various arrangement of tables, to accommodate small receptions and gatherings before or after performances and presentations.

ABOUT

- Seating Capacity: 200
- 16' (Wide) x 27' (Long)
- A greenroom is available in the adjoining Byrnes Auditorium
- The lobby features a handful of comfortable chairs
- Catering and bar service, for hospitality purposes in conjunction with events, is provided by Sodexo Catering Services
- A/V includes a state-of-the-art sound system and smart classroom equipment that supports presentations and lectures utilizing all audio/video formats and internet-based presentations
- Nearby parking for up to 250 vehicles
- Pricing is available upon request

