

TILLMAN AUDITORIUM

6,563 Total SF | Completion: 1894

Tillman Auditorium is housed on the second floor of the Tillman Hall, which is central to activities at Winthrop University. The hall was formerly called Main Building, and it was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1977. Tillman is an excellent example of the Romanesque architecture popular in the 1890s.

INTERESTING FEATURES

- 600-seat auditorium ideal for productions, performances, ceremonies, and presentations.
- An adjacent lobby area can be set up, with various arrangement of tables, to accommodate small receptions and gatherings before or after performances and presentations.

ABOUT

- Seating Capacity: 600
- 58'6" (Wide) x 112' (Long)
- Catering and bar service, for hospitality purposes in conjunction with events, is provided by Sodexo Catering Services
- A/V includes one LCD projector and screen, cabling, presentation audio integration with an additional charge for technical and sound labor
- Nearby parking for up to 350 vehicles
- Pricing is available upon request

