Oral Presentation Initial Consideration for Award
Column One: Requirements to be Considered for an Award	Column Two: To what degree does the poster meet these requirements? Complete this column only if the student meets all of the requirements for consideration. 1 (Basic) – 4 (Advanced)
Presentation Design ☐ Logical flow of information ☐ Information presented in multiple modalities (words, images, graphics, tables, etc.) (Note: may not be applicable for all disciplines)	1 2 3 4
Oral Presentation ☐ Appropriate and clear professional communication style (Note: Varies with discipline) ☐ Command of the content being presented ☐ Meets time requirements (no more than 12 minutes)	1 2 3 4
Project Rationale ☐ Project has a clear purpose ☐ Purpose is effectively communicated to a general audience (Is the project understandable to someone outside of the discipline?) ☐ Purpose is supported by appropriate background information (Note: Depending on the project, this can range from anecdotal information to a formal review of the literature.)	1 2 3 4
Project Design/Methodology ☐ Project design/procedures are clearly described (Note: Methodology will vary across disciplines; no one methodology is better than another.) ☐ Methodology/design is rigorous and appropriately aligned to project purpose	1 2 3 4
Outcomes or Creative Expressions (select one)
Outcomes – Research Projects ☐ Outcomes are communicated in a clear and succinct manner ☐ Outcomes are clearly supported by evidence from the project (Note: Evidence can take many forms.) ☐ Outcomes are meaningful and make a connection to the discipline (Note: connections can be future directions, applications, contributions to the discipline, etc.) Creative Expression ☐ Demonstrates original expression to audience. ☐ Makes a connection with and contributes to the discipline.	1 2 3 4
Does the presentation meet all requirements? Yes___ No ___ If yes, then proceed to Totals	Totals Total Points: _____ (If checked "Yes" for meeting all requirements)